

Jane Carter Solution Nourish & Shine

by GLAMAZINI on JANUARY 26, 2012 in OILS & MOISTURIZERS

I got this sample sized product a while ago {can't remember where} and finally used it a couple months ago while traveling {samples are the best for traveling!}

JANE CARTER SOLUTION NOURISH & SHINE

Product Name: Jane Carter Solution Nourish & Shine

Price: Free, I had a sample

Website: JaneCarterSolution.com

Claims: "[C]ompletely melts in your hair and adds amazing shine and never leaves your hair feeling greasy or limp. Nourish & Shine helps reduce dryness on your scalp and your skin! "

Would Purchase: Absolutely!

I loved this stuff. I'm not one to actually purchase moisturizers since I make my own, but this one I would buy if I needed a ready-made one. It left my hair soft and shiny without buildup. The smell was sweet, almost like an artificial tropical fruit scent, and it also worked well on my elbows and body when necessary. Overall it's a great product and since I believe I have another sample size I'll definitely be using it again on any upcoming trips.

My mother loves this stuff. I think it smells nice too - I know others don't like the smell but I think it is nice.

This stuff is great. I just came from the salon and they stocked it, sold it, and used it on my hair. They didn't have to convince me. 😊

That's exactly it! It "melts" right into your hair. Perfect.

This is good to know that it melts in. I may have to try it. I HATE products that just sit on your hair!

This one is definitely a winner.
